Recommendations for the vocabulary, themes, and stories in this Sound Starters lesson.

Peppermint Pink
Written by Eric Raud, Winged Chariot, For iPhone and iPad, Re-Released 2010;
- About a little rabbit that loves pink.
- Celebrates her birthday party.
- Grand comes to her party with something very nice but not pink.
- The story is a lot of fun and encourages a lot of naming and size comparison.
- A story for a little girl.
- Can be read in English, Estonian, and Japanese.

Hop On Pop
Written and illustrated by Dr. Seuss (Theodor Geisel); Copyright © 1965; Random House, New York, New York;
- This is one of the original Dr. Seuss books written by Theodor Geisel.
- It is a collection of short rhyming stories that explore simple concepts.
- Word play and images demonstrate how meaning can change in fun and funny ways.
- Text is large with one syllable words and 3-5 word phrases and sentences.
- Perfect for a young beginning reader.

Pete the Cat and His Four Groovy Buttons
Written by Eric Litwin and illustrated by James Dean; Copyright © 2012; HarperCollins;
- Pete the Cat has colored buttons that keep popping off.
- Colors, numbers, clothing, and subtraction are included along with lots of rhyming.
- The repetitive lines and events provide lots of opportunities for a child to join in the reading.
- This book is fun!
